

STEPS TAKEN BY WILSON OPPOSED BY REPUBLICANS

Plan for Dealing with German Colonies Assailed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Vigorous opposition was voiced in the senate today by Republican leaders to the plan for dealing with captured German colonies and occupied territories in Asiatic Turkey, which press dispatches from France yesterday said had been presented to the peace conference by President Wilson.

Democratic spokesmen said they could not believe the reports that the president had proposed permanent internationalization of the territories and urged support of the American peace delegates. Some Republican senators pointed out that the official communication issued by the conference said a plan for a disposition had been provisionally agreed upon. The debate continued for two hours and during its course Republican leaders renewed their criticism of the plan for a league of nations, the delay in making peace with Germany, "secret diplomacy" and other questions connected with the peace conference. Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, declared that statements in dispatches from special newspaper correspondents in Paris that the United States would be required to help maintain order in the captured territories was "absolutely unbelievable."

Bring Troops Home

Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, asserted that the internationalization plan proposed a "stupid and preposterous undertaking," while Senator Johnson of California declared he would not vote for a treaty requiring American troops to be sent to Asia or Africa. Senator Vardaman of Mississippi, Democrat, suggested that the senate would reject such a treaty.

In reply to the Republican attacks, Senator Lewis of Illinois, the Democratic whip, said he doubted the authenticity of the Paris reports and declared that disposition of the German colonies as suggested would violate the fundamental principle of self-determination of peoples. He said he believed the actual agreement merely was for temporary administration of the German colonies by the league of nations until their permanent status could be fixed.

Senator Walsh of Montana, Democrat, said he could not believe the American commission would obligate the United States as suggested in the press dispatches.

United support for the American commissioners was urged by Senator Kirby of Arkansas, Democrat. Referring to Admiral Mayo's statement yesterday that the league of nations was rapidly getting down to a "sewing circle" Senator Kirby said if he were president he would reduce Admiral Mayo in rank.

Senator Myers of Montana, Democrat, criticized senators for spending time in "idle talk" and thus delaying consideration of important legislation.

Plan Unbelievable

Senator Lodge, the Republican leader, declared the report of the plan which he said would commit the United States to co-operate in maintaining order in the occupied territories was "absolutely unbelievable" and Senator Knox of Pennsylvania, asserted that the proposed obligation would involve "stupid and preposterous undertaking."

Senator Johnson of California denounced the method of making public the proceedings at the peace conference and declared he would never vote for a treaty that provided for the sending of American troops to Africa or Asia.

Senator Knox raised the question in discussing the probable future size of the American army. Senator Lodge said that apparently the United States was to take part in the management of the German colonial possessions and asked if American troops were to be used.

"Certainly," how could we maintain order otherwise?" Senator Knox said no conclusion rule those people by moral suasion."

Reading from dispatches of American correspondents at Paris regarding proposed internationalizing the German possessions, Senator Knox said no other conclusion could be reached but that the peace conference proposes that part of the "trusteeship or guardianship" shall be assumed by the United States.

"If that is true no army we could possibly raise and no taxes we could secure would be sufficient," said Mr. Knox.

"I hope these reports are not true," said Mr. Knox. "I can't believe they are and that, without consulting congress or the committees having charge of these matters or the American people that we will be pledged to any such stupendous and preposterous undertaking."

Defends Wilson

Senator Vardaman of Mississippi, Democrat, interrupted to ask if it would be possible that the senate would ratify a treaty

Administration's Program For Big Navy Approved

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—The administration policy of vast naval expansion unless world disarmament becomes a certainty thru international agreement at Paris was approved today by the house naval committee in unanimously recommending a new three year building program of ten great battleships and ten scout cruisers. Four Democrats and two Republicans were understood to have opposed the program as originally outlined, but their approval was given after an amendment was accepted providing that work on the new ships should not begin until after Feb. 1, 1920. Administration leaders said the vote was an endorsement of the program announced by Secretary Daniels for an American navy second to none unless limitations are imposed on all nations by the peace conference. Should an agreement for such limitations be reached the bill provides that the president may stop construction at his discretion. While the program as recommended does not authorize the six battle cruisers and 130 other smaller craft asked for by the department it was explained that it had been decided to postpone construction of these vessels until naval experts could reach agreement as to their designs based on experience gained in the war.

The agreement of the committee was reached at a long executive session after which Chairman Padgett, smilingly announced that the decision had been unanimous. Mr. Padgett said the completed naval bill would carry a total of $750,000,000 of which $169,000,000 would be for ship construction.

Work of completing the bill for introduction in the house was expected to be finished by tomorrow. The bill also authorizes a temporary naval force of 225,000 men exclusive of officers and carries an amendment by Representative Oliver of Alabama, directing that men who enlisted in the navy during the war for the regular term of four years shall be regarded as having enlisted for the period of the war, if they apply for such change of status before next July 1.

Bill Calls For An American Army Of Half Million

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—An army of 500,000 men was unanimously decided on today by the house military committee as the basis for determining the appropriation for army pay for the year beginning next July. Committee members said the number was expected to be the average force during the year.

The decision marked the beginning of the committee's work framing the annual military appropriation bill. Members said it had no bearing on permanent future military policy and that while pay was figured for a half million men, it did not follow that appropriations for various branches of services would be such as to provide for an army actually organized as a permanent force of that size.

During the earlier part of the year, it was said, the army was expected to exceed the half million mark, but would be reduced below that number with demobilization. Although no final decision was reached by the committee it appeared that no effort would be made to outline a permanent army reorganization plan at this session of congress.

NAT C. GOODWIN, THE ACTOR, DEAD

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Nat C. Goodwin, the actor, died at a hotel here early today after a brief illness. He came to New York last Monday from Baltimore, where he had been playing. Death was due to a general breakdown in health, following an operation for the removal of his right eye several months ago.

Born at Boston, Mass., July 25, 1857, Goodwin was a familiar figure on the American stage for many years. He made his first appearance in 1874 and subsequently played leading roles in many successful plays, both in the United States and England.

PLENTY OF WORK FOR SOLDIERS

Chicago, Jan. 31.—Speakers at the annual meeting of the American Fruit and Vegetable Shippers association today suggested that many thousands of the returning soldiers and sailors will find plenty of work at good pay on the fruit ranches and vegetable farms of the far west and northwest. Producers expect to ship more than 500,000 carloads of fruits and vegetables this year and the shortage of labor this year appears greater than usual.

CHAIRMAN OF CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE QUILTS

Chicago, Jan. 31.—Joseph P. Griffin former president of the Chicago Board of Trade, refused to accompany the board's wheat committee to Washington and has resigned as chairman of that body. It was learned today,

SEEK IDENTITY OF WHO WROTE DIAMOND T. LETTER

Swift and Veeder Have No Recollection of Message

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—While unsuccessful efforts were being made before the senate agriculture committee today to develop the identity of a person who sent Swift & Co., advance information regarding government activities affecting the meat packing industry the house interstate commerce committee was informed by the federal trade commission that it would furnish the names of witnesses upon whose testimony it had made charges of collusion among the five big packing firms.

Louis F. Swift, president of Swift & Co., and Henry Veeder counsel for the company were questioned before the senate committee.

One letter from Thomas F. Logan, of Washington, and another letter and several memoranda unsigned but purporting to be from "Diamond T" relating to plans of the federal trade commission and the food administration had been read by Francis J. Heney, who was conducting the cross-examination of the witnesses for the committee. Both Mr. Swift and Mr. Veeder said they could not recall having previously seen the Diamond T correspondence. This designation of the correspondence was given by reason that one letter had a T inside a diamond at the top of the page. This letter was dated Washington, June 18, 1917, and told of plans for investigation of food prices. It was marked "private" and bore the stamp, "Louis F. Swift" with a date two days later. At the top was the notation "information received by Mr. Veeder this morning from Diamond T." Initials of six officials of Swift & Co., at the top indicated that copies had been sent to them, the witness said. The letter said:

The Mystery Letter.

"At a meeting of the committee today Mr. Davies was placed in charge of the meat packing end of the food investigation, Mr. Colver in charge of wheat and wheat products and members allotted other phases of the inquiry. This is under the resolution and appropriation recently passed by congress.

"The work is to be done as planned in conjunction with the Hoover food administration. Mr. Davies will shortly wire for a conference in Chicago. He will outline the procedure and ask for assistance. There will be enough delay to give them plenty of time for readiness. It might be suggested that you have in readiness everything bearing on high prices and their causes, even tho it should not be precisely what is desired. With your knowledge you should be able to give some good leads and suggestions for further inquiry.

"Mr. McManus could be helpful at this end if he could get back immediately. Exchange of telegrams inadvisable. Please destroy this immediately."

At the bottom of the letter written in ink and inclosed in a rough square was the name "Hurley."

"Who wrote the name 'Hurley' on there?" asked Mr. Heney.

"It looks a little like my handwriting," Mr. Swift responded.

"When you got something of that sort were you in the habit of consulting Mr. Hurley?" asked Senator Kenyon of Iowa.

"No I might have written 'Armour' or 'Smith' on that letter just as well," said the witness.

"Isn't that the kind of information you paid Mr. Logan to get for you?" continued the Iowa senator.

Mr. Swift denied this.

Swift Has Poor Memory.

"Do you know of any letter in which Mr. Logan advised you about what went on at the white house?" asked Mr. Heney.

Mr. Swift said he did not.

A letter from Logan to Veeder was then read.

In it the future activities of the food administration were detailed several days in advance of the announcement that a food administrator was to be appointed. Reference was made to the alleged antagonism of Secretary of Agriculture to the appointment of Herbert C. Hoover and to the "mad scramble for power" among cabinet members.

When Mr. Swift concluded, Mr. Veeder was called to testify. He said he was unable to say who had written the Diamond T letter.

"It may have been anonymous," he said, "or it may have come from our office in Washington but I doubt very much if it was Tom Logan who wrote that letter."

Mr. Heney contended that the letter could not have been anonymous as reference to Diamond T was noted on other correspondence.

"Did the 'T' mean Tammany,"

Rev. J. W. Harris, the pastor of the Mt. Emory church at Duquoin, Ill., will fill the pulpit at Mt. Emory church Sunday. Rev. Mr. Harris is one of the most widely known young men in the national Baptist convention. He is a native of Georgia and to hear him you will hear a strong gospel preacher.

AGREE TO REMOVE RESTRICTIONS ON FOOD

Washington, Jan. 31.—The trade board announced today that the French ministry of food had agreed to remove the existing restrictions on the importation into France of condensed milk and fats. Export licenses for these commodities will be granted by the board as soon as formal action is taken by the French government.

All Restrictions On Foodstuffs Are Removed

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Removal of all restrictions on margins of profit on foodstuffs except cottonseed products and eggs and cancellation of most license requirements of importers and distributors, effective tomorrow, were announced today by the food administration on authority of a proclamation signed by President Wilson at Paris.

The following only remain under license:

Importers and distributors of wheat, corn, rye, oats, barley and elevators and warehouses storing these grains and rice.

Importers, manufacturers and distributors of fresh, canned or cured beef, pork or mutton, cottonseed, cottonseed products, lard, butter and eggs, and sugar.

Importers and manufacturers of rice, rice flour, wheat flour and wheat mill feed and cold storage warehouse men.

The margins still allowed are: Retail cold storage and fresh eggs, 7 to 8 cents a dozen; cottonseed lard substitutes at wholesale 1 1/4 to 2 cents a pound on more than fifty pound packages 8 to 10 percent on less than 50 and 18 to 22 percent at retail. Wholesale margins on eggs differ according to the number of services performed by the wholesaler or jobber. In addition to the regulations cancelled by the proclamation all remaining special regulations governing manufacturers and distributors of butter were repealed.

In making the announcement the food administration warned dealers that the provisions of the food control act prohibiting profiteering and unfair practices would be rigidly enforced.

This action by the president virtually brings to an end the activities of the food administration except for the continued control of the excepted commodities.

MINORITY REPORT ON IMMIGRATION BILL

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Opposition to legislation suspending immigration for four years after the signing of the peace treaty was expressed today in a minority report on the measure drafted by Representatives Seigel of New York and Sabath of Illinois, members of the immigration committee. It is said a labor shortage was in prospect and denied the assertion of the committee's majority report that America had failed as a melting pot.

"We are convinced that this bill is necessary to maintain a high wage for the toilers of America," said the report. "The danger of the slightest danger of Bolshevism here, we would gladly join in supporting it. The bill neither represents mature thought nor investigation."

WOULD DEPORT ALL ALIEN ENEMIES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Immediate consideration by congress of a department of justice measure providing for the deportation of aliens interned during the war and those convicted of war offenses against the United States was urged today by Representative Burnett of Alabama, chairman of the house immigration committee in asking the rules committee to give the legislation a privilege status for action in the house.

"The immediate importance of this measure," declared Mr. Burnett, "is that when a treaty is signed, these people will have to be discharged and allowed to run at large in this country."

URGES CO-OPERATION OF RELATIVES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—Relatives and friends of wounded soldiers were requested today by Secretary Baker to co-operate with the war department in extending the benefits of vocational education. Soldiers who have suffered permanent injuries the secretary said should have impressed upon them the opportunity that is being given them to "live the productive, self-sustaining and happy lives" to which they are entitled.

Discipline to follow the prescribed courses had been manifested in some cases, Mr. Baker said in expressing the hope that relatives of war veterans would sacrifice their desire to have the men back home at once in the interest of the great good which would be accomplished by operation of the government plan.

WILL PLACE MILEAGE BOOKS ON SALE

Washington, Jan. 31.—Sale of scrip books, good for 3,000 miles, costing $30 with $7.20 additional for war tax, will be placed on sale Feb. 10, the railroad administration announced today. They will be good on all government-controlled railroads and terms will be the same as those of $30 and $15 books now on sale.

TWELVE PLANES BURN

New York, Jan. 31.—Two hangars, each containing six airplanes, were destroyed in a fire which was sweeping the naval aviation station at Rockaway Point today. New York City firemen from several stations were fighting the flames which threatened eight other hangars.

Daniels Presents Commissions To Reserve Officers

ANNAPOLIS, Md., Jan. 31.—presenting commissions today to the last class of reserve officers trained at the United States naval academy during the war, Secretary Daniels predicted that "there will be no time of recession of interest in the navy."

"Not in your day," the naval secretary told the young officers, "will there by any reduction of naval power. We are now on the last stretch of building the three year program of naval construction which was authorized three years ago."

Secretary Daniels said he had no doubt that congress would authorize the recommendation of President Wilson for another three years' program for construction. In building ships under that program he said types of vessels would be constructed which would "keep our navy abreast of any navy in the world."

Build Great Navy.

"We shall not build against any nation," the secretary continued, "because we have faith that the league of peace will bring about such friendship and understanding among all nations as will ultimately cause a reduction in armament and a consequent decrease of expenditures for naval strength. We shall not build against any nation but so long as this republic needs a navy, we must have one, for our own protection and to preserve the peace of the world, that will be powerful, strong and modern."

"It would be a sin for America, rich and powerful to be beholden to any other country for naval protection. We must in whatever sort of world police shall be needed in the new order, contribute as many units and as much strength as any other nation. We must remember always that the maintenance of the Monroe Doctrine is our peculiar responsibility and duty, and for its proper maintenance a navy strong enough and powerful enough to measure up to our responsibility and our obligations."

United States Will Not Send Troops To Turkey

PARIS, Jan. 31.—What ever forces may be sent to Turkey for garrisoning purposes there will be no American troops among them, it developed today. It is pointed out that their use for this purpose would be inappropriate, as the United States has never been at war with Turkey.

The military committee of the supreme council expects within two days to report a plan for the allotment among the various nations of the troops to be retained on the western front. From the data available it appears that by April 1 there will be fifteen American divisions remaining on the lines, with 15 divisions ready for embarkation homeward. A month later it is expected this aggregate will be reduced by five divisions of which ten will be on the lines and five ready to return.

The length of the stay in France of these ten divisions depends on the time of the signing of the general peace treaty. It is said that as soon as that occurs all the American troops probably will be withdrawn.

In anticipation of this question, Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia will arrive tomorrow for the special purpose of personally laying Serbia's case before President Wilson. Meantime reports from the region in controversy show increasing tension there.

One despatch from LaBach says the Italian troops have withdrawn from Fiume, the central point of the controversy and that an inter-allied commission has taken charge of the city. Another despatch from Agram announces that Serbian battalions have entered Fiume and that the Italians have retired to a point near Volosa. These despatches are unofficial but they are taken as indications of the growing acuteness of this issue on the Adriatic coast.

Official Communication.

Paris, Jan. 31.—The full text of the official communication issued this evening dealing with the session of the supreme council follows:

"The president of the United States of America, the prime ministers and foreign ministers of the allied and associated powers and the representatives of Japan met this afternoon at three o'clock.

"The delegates of the great powers, composing the inter-allied commission which will shortly proceed to Poland, were introduced to state the conclusions which they had reached after hearing the representatives of Poland and of the Czech-Slovak Republic regarding the provisional exploitation of the industrial district of Teschen.

"After listening to the reports made by M. Noulens and by General Goeths in the name of their colleagues, the allied ministers decided to send to Teschen all delegates for the purpose of assuring a peaceful exploitation in agreement with the Czechs and the Poles, pending a territorial settlement of the question by the conference.

Washington, Jan. 31.—Sale of scrip books, good for 3,000 miles, costing $30 with $7.20 additional for war tax, will be placed on sale Feb. 10, the railroad administration announced today. ## EARLY FORMING NATION'S LEAGUE IS NECESSARY

To Carry Out Plan for Supervision of Colonies

PARIS, Jan. 31.—(By The Associated Press.)—While the supreme council of the great powers was occupied tonight with some of the lesser controversies—those in the Balkans and Poland—the chief business was in private conference as a sequel to the decision on the German colonies. Having accepted the American plan or supervision of colonies by the league of nations it has now become necessary to give body and substance to a league of nations in order that it may perform the important tasks which are committed to its care. This is regarded as the chief business immediately ahead and President Wilson is giving it his main attention. The president called to the Paris white house last night and entertained Colonel E. M. House and the other members of the league of nations commission and tonight he went to American headquarters for another discussion of this subject with Lord Robert Cecil, the British representative, Colonel House, Secretary of State Lansing and others.

It is the president's personal desire with regard to the colonies, with the league of nations supervising the mandates that the details to be presented will prove acceptable and workable. There is every expectation that the president's plan will be carried out acceptably to him.

Hope to Settle Disagreement

Two premiers of Roumania and Serbia, M. Bratiano and M. Pachitch were heard by the council today, on the boundary issue, the last question lying between them. It developed that another secret treaty was signed in August, 1916, as a condition of Roumania's entry into the war, under which Roumania was holding all the territory within designated river boundaries.

M. Pachitch on behalf of the Serbs, Croats and Slovenes declared that the Roumanian treaty was made without the knowledge of Serbia which was largely concerned in it. He invoked the principle of nationality which President Wilson had enunciated in support of the claim of the Serbians to the region, where he asserted the Serbs largely exceeded the Roumanians.

Altho the hearing showed a sharp difference in views, there is reason to believe that mutual concessions will lead to an agreement between Serbia and Roumania, if not that a commission will be appointed to deal with the subject.

The hearing given to the Serbs today is expected to be followed by the early presentation of the Jugo-Slav claim to the Eastern Adriatic which involves delicate questions and render probable a formidable issue with Italy over the Adriatic coast.

Will Lay Case Before Wilson

In anticipation of this question, Prince Regent Alexander of Serbia will arrive tomorrow for the special purpose of personally laying Serbia's case before President Wilson. Meantime reports from the region in controversy show increasing tension there.

One despatch from LaBach says the Italian troops have withdrawn from Fiume, the central point of the controversy and that an inter-allied commission has taken charge of the city. Another despatch from Agram announces that Serbian battalions have entered Fiume and that the Italians have retired to a point near Volosa. ## Capital-Labor Discuss Ways To Prevent Strikes

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 31.—Steps were taken here today by a joint committee representing capital and labor of Illinois which it is hoped will do much to prevent strikes and industrial disturbances in the state. A committee named by the Illinois Federation of Labor met with a committee from the Illinois Manufacturers' association and in the presence of Governor Frank O. Lowden, who summoned the men to his office, made plans intended to result in an amicable arrangement between employers and employees particularly during the war to peace transition period.

Another meeting will be called by Governor Lowden later on to establish a permanent commission or organization to deal with disputed questions the details to be left to accredited representatives of both sides. So far as any of the parties to the conference today were informed, no such meeting seeking such large results ever has been held in Illinois or any other state. When Governor Lowden came from the conference tonight he expressed confidence that a great deal had been accomplished. His view was shared by George Perkins, of Chicago, chairman of the employers' committee, William Nelson Pelouze, also of Chicago, head of the employers' committee and others.

Those Present

Employers at the conference were Roger C. Sullivan, Sawyer Biscuit company, Chicago; R. E. Conway, Armour & Co., East St. Louis; T. H. O'Brien, Leader Iron Works, Decatur; H. Woodward, International Register company, Chicago; R. H. Faunteloy, Moline Malleable Iron company, St. Charles; William Boye, Illinois Steel company, Chicago; William N. Pelouze, Pelouze Manufacturing company, Chicago and L. R. Claussen, Deer Implement company, Chicago.

Representatives of organized labor were as follows:

George W. Perkins, president Cigarmakers' International Union, Chicago; Matthew Wolf, president Photograph Engravers International Union, Chicago; Charles P. Ford, general secretary Electrical Workers International Union, Springfield; John Fitzgerald, president Chicago Federation of Labor, Chicago; Simon O'Donnell, president Chicago Building Trades Council, Chicago; Steve Sumner, business agent Milwaukee Drivers' International Union, Chicago; Ben F. Parker, president executive board Chicago Waiters association Chicago; Edward McMorro, international organizer street railway employees Union, Chicago; John Alpine, president Plumbers and Steamfitters International Union, Washington, D. C.; Albert Peterson, business agent Steam Operating Engineers, Chicago; Charles F. E. Moore, business agent International Machinists association, Chicago; Charles B. Stillman, president Teachers International Union, Wilmette; George B. Statter, Garment Workers International Union, Chicago; Edwin R. Wright, Typographical Union, Chicago and John Walker, president Illinois Federation of Labor.

Lowden Pleased

In a written statement, Governor Lowden referred to the successful solution of labor problems during the war by the State Council of Defense and expressed the hope that the new joint arrangement would prove equally efficacious in reaching amicable industrial settlements.

Continuing the governor said: "It was realized by all at today's conference that the first and most essential thing is to stimulate the ordinary every day industries so that the problem of unemployment may be met. While all agreed that public works could help considerably still the private ordinary industry must be run if conditions of employment are to become satisfactory. It also was agreed that the first condition to the return of more activity in the industrial world was increased confidence in the future. That confidence, it was believed would be greatly strengthened by the employer and the employee were to have a better knowledge of one another and a better understanding of one another."

"The meeting adjourned with the determination on the part of both sides, if I am any judge, to work out together the problems of reconstruction, and will meet again at an early date."

SEEK CAUSE OF SHOOTING

Fort Bliss, Texas, Jan. 31.—An investigation is being made here of the shooting of Private G. A. Moore, a Seventh cavalry who was found dead at his guard post yesterday. It was announced here another soldier was being held pending the outcome of the investigation. Moore's home was in Detroit.

"A statement of the views of the respective interests and rights of Roumania and Serbia in the Banat of Temesvar was then heard. Mr. Batano and M. Mishu represented the Roumanian delegation and the Serbian delegation was composed of M. Pachitch and M. Trumbitch.

"The next meeting was fixed for tomorrow, Saturday, at three o'clock."

BIG WAR REVENUE BILL MEETS WITH MORE DELAYS

Conferees Will Take Final Action on the Measure Today

WASHINGTON, Jan. 31.—New and unexpected obstacles to the long delayed war revenue bill developed today, resulting in settlement of more minor disputes between the senate and house, but entailing postponement of final action by the conferees until tomorrow and submission of the conference re-draft probably until Tuesday.

To secure instructions from the house on senate amendments in dispute Representative Kitchin of North Carolina, the Democratic leader brought the bill before that body late today and after spirited discussion the house instructed its managers to accept with modifications the senate plan for taxing political campaign contributions.

Demands for separate votes in the house on two other senate amendments levying a prohibitory tax on products of child labor and applying the Reed "bone dry" prohibition law to the District of Columbia were withdrawn today. Retention of these in the bill now is regarded as assured. While the discussion was proceeding in the house, it was learned that the conferees had agreed to a compromise amendment for pay bonuses of $50 each to enlisted men and nurses and $200 to officers of the army, navy and marine corps upon discharge. The bonus would be paid to those already discharged as well as to those subsequently given honorable discharges or who resign.

Finish Work Today

Because of the house discussion, no session of the conferees was held today. They will meet tomorrow and expect to finish work on the bill sending it to the printer. It was said, however, that the delay would prevent distribution of the final re-draft until next Monday or Tuesday and that the conference report would not be submitted to the house until next Tuesday.

Despite today's action by the house, the campaign contribution tax still remains in dispute for settlement tomorrow by the conferees with a lively contest in prospect. By a vote of 444 to 67, the house today instructed its conferees not to accept the senate amendment which would levy a tax of 100 per cent on campaign contributions in excess of $500. Immediately afterward, however, the house voted, 191 to 116, to accept the principle of taxing campaign contributions but to limit such taxes to future campaigns. Representative Moore of Pennsylvania, Republican, proposed but withdrew a suggestion to make the law retroactive.

WORKING AGAINST ITSELF

How the government works against itself sometimes is illustrated in the statement that the railroad administration is planning to increase the freight rate on sand, gravel and cement, an average amount of 25 to 40 per cent. It is admitted that increases in revenue are necessary for the railroads if expenses are to be met, but increased freight on these commodities at this time will have a tendency to delay public improvements and private building operations, just at the time when the government is urging the need for extensive building operations for the purpose of furnishing employment.

MALIGNED U. S. SOLDIERS IN PARIS.

The news stories from overseas in which American soldiers were charged with a crime wave in Paris, caused both surprise and chagrin here in the U. S. It seemed unbelievable that the forces which won such fame and honor in the war should now be detracting from that fine record by lawless acts.

So it is a relief to know that the first stories were greatly exaggerated and for the most part came from the imaginations of Paris

A BUDGET SYSTEM.

For the first time in the history of the state a budget was presented to the legislature yesterday. This budget which is outlined by the financial department in accordance with the administrative code provisions, was sent to the legislature by Gov. Lowden. These suggestions for appropriations which have been worked out with great care by the financial department, will be of real service to the legislators in outlining the possible expenditures for the state during the coming two years. Experience has shown both in public and private affairs that the budget system is of inestimable value in keeping revenues and expenditures in their proper relative relationship.

Why wouldn't a budget system for a municipality be a valuable thing? In the case of Jacksonville it would be an entirely different matter from the appropriation ordinance, which provides the legal means for expending but gives no adequate idea of the city's financial strength. To read the figures in the appropriation ordinance the uninformed might think this city reveling in wealth. A budget system is a good thing.

LEISURE WITH PAY IS POOR PLAN.

A Detroit automobile manufacturer is urging the senator from his state to push a law which would double the pay of soldiers and keep them on the pay roll until they find employment. A great majority of citizens want to do everything possible for the returned soldiers to show them America's appreciation. There are, however, many fallacies in connection with a plan to keep the men on the pay roll for an indefinite time until all find employment. These men are human and for some of them a period of idleness on full pay would be disastrous.

The well known fact that idlers—rich or poor—are those most likely to get into trouble will apply to ex-soldiers just as well as to ordinary civilians. The reasonable thing to do is to provide such an amount of public work that all men who cannot find private employment will still have some useful labor to perform. It may be a more expensive time than the normal for the undertaking of big programs of public improvement, but even so, the expense thus incurred will not be as great as will follow if non-employment becomes general, with its attendant discord and discontent.

THE NEW ZEALAND PLAN.

Tax questions are now occupying the best thought of municipalities and states all over the nation. In Illinois some of the most important proposed legislation relates to taxing systems, and the majority of cities are seeking thru taxation to increase revenue. In Iowa a bill has been introduced which would provide the New Zealand method of taxation. And it will be passing strange if the commonwealth here, with its reputed advancement and improvement over the old world, finds a satisfactory pattern for its taxing methods away over in the little country of New Zealand.

But the method there is certainly effective, for it provides among other things that each property owner is to make his own assessment. This sounds easy—every resident on his own honor, just like some of the teachers used to do in school when they maintained order on the honor system.

Rippling Rhymes
By Walt Mason

Gentle Annie.
Come, gentle spring, ethereal mildness, come!
While winter lasts this life is pretty bum. We look ahead with yearning and with sighs to vernal days and cloudless azure skies. As some worn pilgrim, lashed by wind and sleet wounded by thorns and dying on his feet, beholds the inn, with windows all aglow, so view we spring, from out our drifts of snow. Winter is fierce; its methods all are wrong; winter's frost it sticks around too long; if it would come and last a week or two, then chase itself to fields and pastures new, we could endure, with Spartan fortitude all it might spring in climate rough and rude. But as a guest old winter has no style; he brings his grips and comes to stay a while; month by month he camps around the place till he becomes a burden and disgrace. Vainly we hint that he should pull his freight; still he remains in mmovable as fate. Long weary weeks must pass before he goes, taking his frost and sample line of snows; then cometh spring, with all her roses red, and to that time we yearning look ahead.

CAPT. VICKERY TALKS ABOUT BRAVERY

Declares Record of U. S. Soldiers Should Make Americans Proud—Men Full of Courage and Unselfishness.

As mentioned previously Capt. Earl Vickery is on the staff of General Bullard in the overseas service. The honor thus given him is the best testimonial to the ability he has all along shown. Capt. Vickery under his father Major E. C. Vickery had fine military training as a lad and later made good in all the newer things in military life. Capt. Vickery writing to his uncle Major John A. Vickery says:

"You know, I believe the American people are going to see a big change in the boys. They have lived ten years over here in the short six to ten months, and they are going to be a lot different. They have seen all sorts of life and have a better understanding of it. And they are the most wonderful boys in the world, mentally and physically. Stand anything without a grumble."

"I was forced to stay all night at a hospital a week or so ago—my car broke down—and after dinner I set around wood fire with a lot of boys from Maryland, very prominent surgeons of the east—John Hopkins university instructors, etc., and the stories those men told of the pluck and courage of our boys would make a lump come up in your throat and tears come to your eyes. They are a wonderful bunch. Honestly, you can't realize it unless you have seen it."

Others First.
"But if you'd ever seen them come out of an attack—in the middle of the night, raining and cold, with mud up to their shoe tops and their clothing mud and torn by the wire, with their tin hats tilted to one side of their heads singing or smoking cigarettes, some boys' gun or pack who was sick, you might get a little idea of them."

Or go into a first aid station, see forty or fifty lying around, shot to pieces, each telling the doctor to look after the other fellow, etc., etc. It's fine! One of these doctors said he had operated on thousands and never heard a whimper from a single man. Not a man asked him if he could save him, or his arm or leg—simply lay back on the table, took the ether without a struggle or a whimper or a request. I don't believe the people back home can ever realize what a wonderful bunch of boys we have.

Capt. Vickery later in the letter mentions a sight seeing trip to Paris, accompanied by his orderly Pount Andrews. There have been more recent trips to Metz and Strasburg.

ROTARY CLUB IN WEEKLY SESSION

Appeal Made for Red Cross—Committee Will Aid in Dairy Campaign—W. L. Fay Told About Associated Press.

The weekly luncheon of the Rotary club was held at the Pacific hotel Friday noon. E. E. Crabtree made a special statement for the Red Cross, urging support of the campaign during the closing days. L. T. Potter made reference to the special campaign for dairy extension which the dairy division of the department of agriculture is fostering. Mr. Potter was appointed chairman of the committee to aid in the work in this county.

W. L. Fay made a talk about the Associated Press, telling about the history of the organization and some facts about its present operation. It was mentioned that there is only one other city in the U. S. as small as Jacksonville which receives full Associated Press report. Some other facts about the Associated Press Mr. Fay gave, are recorded herewith:

Is Unique Organization

The Associated Press as at present constituted was reorganized years ago under the laws of the state of New York and is purely an organization of newspaper publishers for the purpose of gathering news on joint account. It is purely mutual in its character and in this respect is unique. All of the other news gathering agencies of the world are proprietary concerns. It issues no stock, makes no profit and declares no dividends. It does not sell news to anyone. It is a clearing house for the interchange of news among its members only. Its membership consists of over eleven hundred daily newspapers, morning and afternoon in the United States, each of which contributes to the common budget, news of national interest originating in its section and pays a weekly assessment amounting to its share of the general expense of the organization. The business and has its vote in the election of the management.

The annual expenses run up into the millions and to meet this each member is assessed a sum which is paid weekly in advance, and in making this assessment an equitable system is followed which provides that the heavier tax falls on the larger papers. For the year 1917 the expense ran nearly four million dollars, war expenses adding largely thereto. The association is several times greater in magnitude and in the importance of its work than any other institution for distributing news. The Jacksonville Journal has declared a population of over 20,000, and since its membership many years ago the cost of the service has increased many times, and it is probably the smallest town in the nation holding membership and having a full leased wire service with its own operator.

The world at large is divided for the purpose of news gathering among four great agencies. The Reuter telegraph company of London gathers and distributes the news in Great Britain and all her colonies, the Woulfe agency in Berlin and the Havas agency in Paris. The field of the Associated Press includes the United States, the Hawaiian Islands, the Philippines and Central America as well as the islands of the Caribbean Sea. Each of these agencies has representative in the offices of the other. Telegrams to the Reuter Co. are written on manifold sheets by the telegraph and cable companies and copies are served simultaneously to the Associated Press bureau, the Woulfe agency and the Havas people and to the Reuter people. A like arrangement obtains in Paris, Berlin and New York so that in each of these cities the whole panorama of the world's happenings passes under the eyes of representatives of each of the four agencies.

The Associated Press maintains its own agencies in all the important capitals of the world and reports by its own men, who are Americans and familiar with American newspaper methods. For an exchange of domestic news the methods are not much different. Each of the eleven hundred newspapers whose proprietors are members of the association are obliged to give the representatives of the association free access to its news as soon as received. For the purpose of administration the country is divided into four grand divisions each controlled by a superintendent acting as a general manager. The Chicago office is the hub of the central division in which we are located. Over 60,000 words are received in Chicago every twenty-four hours. There are two wires from Chicago to the Pacific coast, two from Chicago to New York and two from Chicago to Washington. These wires are given different routings to insure protection during storms. The wire which opens at 7 a. m. and closes at 3 p. m. handles 14,000 words and this the Journal receives by mail, reaching here at 5:10 p. m. This is done to prevent repeating anything on night wire. Night wire picks up were the day wire leaves off.

The night wire carries about 16,000 words and as of course it is impossible for a paper the size of the Journal using any such amount we only endeavor to give our readers the benefit of the best.

Journal Has Two Wires
The news as printed in the Journal is as late as that in any city paper in the country. Operators are required to handle 49 words per minute or 2460 per hour. The Journal has two wires into the office. One is routed via state road to Springfield the other goes from Jacksonville to Virginia and then to Springfield. This is done to protect against storm or fire destroying lines. They use the best wires obtainable as the Bell telephone long distance circuits are used, the lines being so arranged that they can be used for long distance talking circuits and telegraph circuits simultaneously.

Carries Employee's Insurance

The following offices are on the circuit with the Journal: Saginaw, Grand Rapids, Jackson, Detroit, Bay City, and Kalamazoo, Mich.; Burlington, Dubuque, Davenport, Waterloo and Cedar Rapids, Iowa; Quincy, Springfield, Decatur, Danville, Bloomington, and Peoria, Ill. Each employee of the company is insured for $1000 at the expense of the association and any employee of the company disabled from work temporarily is paid full time. Aside from that each employee has two weeks vacation with pay. The American Telephone Co. keeps five men on the night wire whose duty it is to keep a close watch for wire trouble, these men being stationed at Peoria, Springfield, Bloomington and Chicago in Illinois and at Burlington and Davenport, Iowa. The total mileage of the leased wire system is approximately 52,000 miles.

There are no franchises. This term is frequently used where membership is referred to.

Membership Valuable

While the membership is ordinarily in the name of an individual it is really the property of the company or paper he represents. The certificate belonging to the Journal Company recites in part that "W. L. Fay is a member of the Associated Press and as such is entitled to the news as part of the association for publication in the Jacksonville Journal" subject to payments, etc., and also "subject to the obligation on the part of said member to furnish for the use of said corporation the news of the city of Jacksonville." Also that "the said member shall have the right to protest against the election by the board of directors of any member representing a membership in the city of Jacksonville."

It is the latter clause which has given the great value some times placed upon memberships, for while the "right of protest" is not held as an absolute bar to others obtaining the same privileges, yet it is ordinarily effective. This exclusive territory has at times been held at a very high figure by competitors and in many cases large sums have been paid for papers holding these certificates of membership.

The Journal has been most fortunate in its membership and is rather proud of the fact. The Association is very conservative and sure in its estimate of what constitutes news. Its boast is that it is rarely let astray in promulgating "fake" news. The most notable case of this character is so recent as to be easily recalled by the most of us. When the armistice was signed the Journal was enabled by the prompt service of the association to have its papers on the streets by the hour of the cessation of hostilities.

PAVEMENT HEARING

The hearing on the proposed pavement of East and West College Avenue will be held Monday, Feb. 10, at 3 p. m. at the city hall.

SOME SALE

S. B. Robinson of Murrayville has left for the Journal office a copy of a "sale bill" published at Lamore, N. D., and sent to Murrayville by a former Morgan county resident. It purports to be an advertisement of a sale to be held July 4, 1919, when the German nation offers a vast quantity of goods for sale. The document is composed in facetious vein and has been read with interest by many people. It is posted in the Journal office window.

Abbott who is stationed at Bordeaux, France have received some post cards showing the scenery at Bordeaux he also sent some silk handkerchiefs showing the colors of the allies flags embroidered by the French women. He said he was well and would be glad to return to the old U. S. A.

Mrs. John M. Funk and daughter, Miss Ruth, Mrs. George Anderson and Mrs. J. D. Stout of Chapin came to the city Friday in the Funk car. Miss Ruth was the chauffeur and they found the roads all the way from Chapin to Jacksonville in fine condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brockhouse were among the visitors in the city Friday.

The Avery Tractor is different from other tractors. It has a perfected opposed motor, with renewable inner cylinder walls, gasifiers that turn kerosene into gas, and adjustable crankshaft boxes. It has a round radiator, with no fan, belts, pumps, chains, or other such parts. It has a patented sliding frame which makes possible the simplest and most efficient belt and drawbar transmission system built. That is why the Avery design has proved so successful. That is why there are Avery tractors which have been working in the hands of owners for many years and are still good for many more years of hard work. The words "Avery Tractors" and "Motor Farming Success" mean the same thing. You should investigate what motor farming with Avery Tractors can do for you. ## COMMUNITY FORUM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH Tomorrow Evening Dr. Arthur C. Ryan Turkey and the Near East. With Question Period.

NO PARTY AT TOWERS HOME.

In the issue of Thursday morning a news item was published indicating that a party had been given at the home of Mrs. Joseph Towers on Prairie street and a list of those supposedly in attendance was published. The item as it appeared had been written out and sent to the Journal office. Evidently the article was in error for no such gathering was held at the home of Mrs. Towers and the family has no personal acquaintance with some of those named in the supposed list of guests. Several times recently news items with reference to social events have been brought to the Journal office and published in good faith, subsequent statements showing that the articles were in error.

A local newspaper naturally assumes that any article brought in for publication is correct and it is hard to understand the motive anyone may have for furnishing incorrect facts. The Journal regrets the publication of the article mentioned.

THE COMMUNITY FORUM CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH SUNDAY EVENING

is presenting as speakers men of national reputation, broad-minded, fearless, red-blooded men, who discuss the social, community and national problems of democracy, questions to which every thinking man and woman should give attention. In an evening church service that is satisfying and different. Earnest, people uncommitted and unafraid, find in the forum a place to learn how the other fellow's problems and how the doctrine of the Fatherhood of Man can solve the perplexities of our social, industrial and political life. The forum is a peoples' meeting where one can talk back at the speaker. Get acquainted with the forum, you will like it.

The speaker tomorrow evening will be Arthur C. Ryan who knows Turkey and the Near East from long personal experience. He will discuss conditions in the Near East and the future of its peoples. A question period will follow his address.

You'll like it at the Congregational church.

THINK OF THE MONEY YOU CAN SAVE ON SHOES

Clarence J. Bloenker of St. Louis, Missouri, writes: "I have a pair of shoes with Neolin Soles and have used them for two years. I think they will last another six months."

Mr. Bloenker also recommends Neolin Soles for their comfort and waterproofness.

It is a remarkable fact that Neolin Soles cost no more than others that give only ordinary wear. You can get them on new shoes in many styles for men, women, and children—and they are available everywhere for resoling, too.

And look at the money you save—because you need fewer pairs of shoes with Neolin Soles. Remember—these soles are made by Science to be especially tough and durable. They are manufactured by The Goodyear Tire & Rubber Co. of Akron, Ohio, who also make Wingfoot Heels—guaranteed to outwear any other heels.

ENDS VISIT WITH RELATIVES.

Arthur M. Abernathy has completed a furlough visit with relatives in Concord and has returned to Camp Taylor, Ky. He entered the army service Sept. 22, 1917, and was sent to Camp Taylor. He was first in the ambulance corps but was later transferred to the quartermasters corps in which he is now serving. A short time prior to the signing of the armistice he took the examination for entrance to an officers' training camp, which he took with a high rating, and was due to leave in two hours when an order came from Washington to hold the boys. Private Abernathy is well satisfied with army life but will naturally be glad to get back to civilian life.

In order to close all odd lots of men's or women's sweaters, they will be reduced in price today.

Senator Lodge said he had felt from the beginning that the important thing for the peace conference was to make a peace treaty with Germany and let other questions go over and allow American troops to be returned home.

"Instead," said the Minority Leader, "all this time has been spent discussing questions not essential to peace with Germany or to get our men home. And now come these reports of the last two or three days which to me are absolutely unbelievable. I know that we are to be committed to maintenance of order in German East Africa."

Senator Thomas of Colorado interrupted to ask if it was indispensable to dispose of the German African colonies.
Leave Colonies Alone.
"I think the colonies ought to be taken away from Germany," answered Senator Lodge warmly. "We ought to turn them over to the people who captured them to make any disposition they choose, but why should we be charged with administering them?"

"But does not the senator think we are concerned with the question of Kiaoo Chao in China?" asked Mr. Thomas.

"The question between China and Japan is one of the most momentous," Mr. Lodge replied. "It concerns us greatly. But our policy involves meddling in the internal affairs of South Africa. Those wild tribes have to be controlled and my own disposition is to bring them under the South African republic."

Oppose Secret Diplomacy.
Senator Lodge asserted again that he did not know the facts on which to base judgment and Senator Borah replied that was the trouble with the entire question.
"We should realize it is most necessary to have open negotiation and open covenants," declared the Idaho senator.

Senator Johnson read from a newspaper a statement given out telling of the peace conference proceedings in which announcement was made that "satisfactory arrangements were reached for dealing with the German colonies and the occupied territory of Turkey in Asia."

The senate and the people of this country, said the California senator, are singularly fortunate in having this illuminating news sent that "satisfactory arrangements were made yesterday, etc.," by their peace commissioners in Paris.

Newspaper correspondents, he said, told the country that these satisfactory arrangements meant the sending of troops to these German colonies and he added that there would be at least one vote in the senate against any treaty providing for the sending of American troops to Asia or Africa.

ESTABLISHMENT OF 8-HOUR DAY ORDERED

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—Orders directing 700,000 members of the United Textile Workers of America to establish an eight hour day Monday regardless of the objection of employers, were issued today by the Union's executive committee according to an announcement here tonight.
John Golden, general president of the Union said the order had been telegraphed to 28 local unions throughout the country and that responsibility for the next step was up to the manufacturers. "We are putting the 8 hour work-day in effect," he said, "and if the manufacturers don't like it, it is their next move."
Many mill owners, it is said, have announced their determination to shut the mills if the workers insist altering working hours. Union officials said that the present 44 hour week would be put into effect with an 8 hour day, and a half holiday on Saturdays.

When he comes home — there should be a new portrait to record the event.

GIVE PICTURE OF FRENCH HOME LIFE

Wilson Smith of Waverly Now Overseas Doing Publicity Work for Y. M. C. A.—Some Little Known Facts About Parisians.

Wilson M. Smith, publisher of the Waverly Journal, is in the overseas service of the Y. M. C. A. and is at present doing publicity work for the educational department. Following several weeks' service on the Argonne Meuse front, he was then located at Varennes. He was engaged at that time with others in the serving of cocoa and giving attention to the soldiers. At present he is in Paris doing publicity work for which his training especially fits him. The following article is one of a series that he has written purporting to show American soldiers in France.

This letter is a direct appeal to the French people to open their homes to the soldiers, and the interesting article indicates that the appeal was not in vain. The reader will be interested too in getting this intimate and somewhat new picture of French home life. Many people as the first paragraph of the article suggests, have always thought of the French as a gay, careless people and have not realized that this reputation does not apply to the people or to French character as a whole. The article follows:

The real people of France are aroused over the fact that "Gay France" has been over-advertised. France, as seen on the Parisian boulevard or in its cafe life, is not the France that the home-loving and substantial people wish to show to the million or more Americans of the A. E. F., to look upon as truly representative of the republic.

That their friends, the Americans, will not return home convinced in a hasty and superficial impression, a group of generous-spirited people are lifting the curtain that their visitors can see the soul of France—her beautiful home life.

"French Homes" is the name of the organization thru which these people are working and its purpose is stated as extending a new welcome to the American Expeditionary Force. Mme. Madeleine Meyer-Delbos, a Paris newspaper woman and magazine writer of note, is one of the leaders of this movement and is doing excellent work in bringing it to the attention of the people of France whose homes heretofore have been closed to the foreigner.

It has been my pleasure to interview Mme. Meyer-Delbos and found her enthusiastic in the progress that had been made and the better understanding of each other of the peoples of the two great republics on either side of the Atlantic.

"I looked for welcome.

"When we say a new welcome," says Mme. Meyer-Delbos, "we mean an unlooked for welcome. To Americans who have lived in France and know the French our meaning is quite clear. No homes are more shut to the mere stranger or foreigner than the French homes. It is almost the impossible for an outsider to enter the sacred precincts of the French home. This is one of the prime factors preventing foreigners from being able to form a just estimate of the real value, the real life of the French home and of France.

"The French home is the most jealously guarded of homes. You cannot meet its daughters. The wives and daughters are never to be met with casually. They are not to be seen in the cafes; they do not frequent hotel life; when summer tempts them "far from the maddening crowd" they disperse to their country chateaux or sea-side villas. Thus, Americans might spend years in France and never get an opportunity of judging the real life of its people.

"The ice once broken, the contact taken, and both France and America will know each other better. The ice has been broken.

A few lines in the leading papers, an appeal to the French family circles has sent to fight for us and France witnessed what she has always dreamed impossible. The barriers given way before the New World's coming and old aristocratic mansions open wide their time worn closed gateways to America's sons.

Atlanche of Letters. "There was an avalanche of letters in the offices of 'French Homes.' Some of the noblest families bade Americans welcome to their mansions where board and lodging and family life would await them. 'It is little enough we can do to make some return for all she has done for us,' wrote a proud old Duke, 'but that little we are proud and happy to do for the Americans.' 'All that my house can offer will be gladly given to help some American find a home in France,' writes a Countess.

"Only those who know the French can judge all this significant. It is a social revolution and it is only America's sons who have known how to win their way to the very hearts of the French sacred home. From all ranks of society from the highest to the lowest the same trait is to be found.

"I have two rooms, writes an old Father. They were my two sons' rooms. Both have been killed on the battlefield. I cannot do better than offer what was theirs to two American boys, brothers in arms of my two heroes.' Here a poor woman who lives by selling vegetables opens up her humble home. 'I have a son,' she writes, 'and I would like an American mother to feel that her boy has found a bit of home life here with us. We have not much to offer but what we have we will gladly share.'

A Bit of Home Life. "Here a writer offers to share his 'den' with an ally; here an artist's studio; here a clerk in a shop says his children may help to make up for a humble lodging in making some lad feel at home. The list is long; humble letters, letters bearing proud crests, all he before me in response to our appeal on behalf of our Allies.

"Americans who have read those letters and their beautiful sentiment showing their gratitude and love for America have been greatly moved by their feelings of deep gratitude. "It is wonderful," said one of them, "as we read a particularly beautiful letter to him and we would like for all the people to know of this welcome extended us. We wish the French could know how we appreciate this kindness—and after all we have only done our duty."

The benevolent spirit of "French Homes" as well as that of the American just quoted will seal the bond between France and America that has endured since the days of the immortal Lafayette.

LAST DAY IN RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Workers Will Make Strenuous Efforts to Complete Canvass Today.

The Red Cross membership campaign will close tonight and the final day promises to be one of large and generous activity. The roster at headquarters in the Knollberg building yesterday at the closing hour showed a membership of 4,400. Dr. G. H. Kopperl, campaign manager, said last night that the number is not as large as he had hoped for but that his faith was still abundant that when the final returns were received tonight from all Jacksonville and the county, that the good reputation of the community for generosity and loyalty would be maintained.

The figures, 4,400, include no outside precinct except that of Franklin. The arrangements have been made by W. Barr Brown, chairman for the county precincts, to have the membership totals furnished the headquarters for the county precincts tonight and before the closing hour it will be possible to compute the number of names on the Red Cross roll in Morgan county.

The plans have been formulated for intensive canvassing work today in Jacksonville and in the outlying precincts where this work has not already been completed. Every person who has joined the Red Cross is especially asked to wear his or her button today and those who have not yet secured buttons are asked to do so before the day is over.

Last year, Morgan county had a Red Cross membership of about 10,000 and it is sincerely hoped that this good record will be equaled, and it certainly will, if the interest and enthusiasm of the campaign committees can bring the condition to pass. Members of the Canteen Girls unit are requested to meet at Red Cross headquarters this morning at 10 o'clock in order to take care of the part in the campaign work of the day which has been assigned to them.

Quincy 26, Illinois 16.
Illinois lost to Quincy College at Quincy Friday night by a score of 25 to 16. In talking to the Journal over the telephone Friday evening Coach Harmon said the Quincy five was one of the fastest he had seen since his return from the Pacific coast. It has played together for several years and the team work was excellent.

Illinois was further handicapped by the narrow floor as they have been used to a regulation floor. However, the men showed well and Coach Harmon said he believed they were making steady improvement in their play despite the defeat. The team plays Carthage college at Carthage tonight.

"With the Colors"

Letters of Interest from Morgan County Boys in the Country's Service.

From Corp. Leo T. Lahey

Miss Kate Lahey of Literberry has received the following letter from her brother, Corporal Leo T. Lahey, now with the American troops in France:

Dec. 18, 1918.

Dear Sister: Will drop you a line tonight as I have a little Christmas gift for you. I was over at Tours and saw a couple of nice handkerchiefs and so will send you one. They are hard to find in this section of France. I sent one to Ellen some time ago, just a few nights before I went to the front for the last time. I was in the second line trench at the front when they stopped fighting. I was in a place that morning when they cut loose at us and we soon made ourselves scarce for a time. I shall come very close to some of us fellows, but we are all still together.

I went out in "No Man's Land" and saw the American boys lying there. Saw nineteen of them placed in one grave, side by side. They were taking a town on the morning of Nov. 11 and SHREDDED was in a hot place and was more than glad when the fighting was stopped.

You said Charles H. was in the Metz drive, and that was sure some drive too. I have been all over that part of the country. I saw one church near the front which looked like a screen door. It was so full of holes. The Kaiser must have had a full range on it. After the firing ceased the boys went out on No Man's Land and the Fritzies came out from their trenches and saluted the Yankee boys.

Margaret sent me one of Arthur Johnson's letters which was written Oct. 15. I was close to the front line then. I sure would like to run across some of the boys over here. I'll bet John Hanning and Ed McCarty think they are a long way from Lindsey hill. I don't know just when I will be home, but as we have the Germans whipped I guess I'll be home soon. Will close for this time.

Your loving brother, Leo.

The Quick Way To Stop a Cough

This Home-made Syrup Does the Work in a Hurry. Easily Prepared, and Saves About $2.

You might be surprised to know that the best thing you can use for a severe cough, is a remedy which is easily prepared at home in just a few moments. It's cheap, but for prompt results it beats anything else you ever tried. Usually stops the ordinary cough or chest cold in 24 hours. Tastes pleasant, too—children like it—and it is pure and good.

Pour 2-1/2 ounces of Pinex in a pint bottle; then fill it up with plain granulated sugar syrup. Or use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup, if desired. Thus you make a full pint—a family supply—but costing no more than a small bottle of ready-made cough syrup.

And as a cough medicine, there is really nothing better to be had at any price. It goes right to the spot and gives quick, lasting relief. It promptly soothes the inflamed membranes that line the throat and air passages, stops the annoying throat tickle, loosens the phlegm, and soon your cough stops entirely. Splendid for bronchitis, croup, whooping cough and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a highly concentrated compound of Norway pine extract, famous for its healing effect on the membranes.

To avoid disappointment ask your druggist for 2-1/2 ounces of Pinex with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

R. S. Hamilton of the vicinity of Arnold has received the following letter from his nephew Joe C. Simmons.

New York City, Jan. 10th, 1919.
Dear Uncle and Aunt:—Arrived in New York on the Seventh, sure was glad to get back in good old U. S. A., once more.

I am going home Feb. 1st, for a few days after everybody has had a furlough, we are going to Cuba for the rest of the winter. Don't suppose I will get out until peace is signed.

Got your package of soap just before we sailed from Ireland sure was glad to get them as it is pretty cold up here and wool clothes are scarce. We had the honor of escorting President Wilson to France, sure was a grand sight. Eight battleships and forty destroyers of the American navy and bunch from the French navy. They were in formation around his ship.

The French sure gave him a grand welcome gave him a salute of hundred and one guns the highest salute anyone was ever known to get.

We had lots of hardships in the war zone, but lots of fun with it. Wouldn't take anything for my experience. We wot one submarine and thirty-six prisoners and saw several more and fired on them or dropped depth charges on them, but don't know whether we got them or not, was fired on twice, once by a sub, and once by a British patrol boat, never was hit. I saw one ship torpedoed and picked up survivors from another ship that was torpedoed.

Had a letter from Clayton telling me Uncle Bob was there and that he had bought the Boston place.

We came back by way of Azores Island, was there two days, went in swimming. It is real warm there and fruit you never saw the like, could buy oranges and pineapples at your own price.

Well must close now thanking you again for the soap and wishing you a happy new year I am.

EMMETT MILLER
WRITES FROM FRANCE

Emmett Miller, writing from France to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Miller, has the following:

Thesse, France.

Dec. 24, 1918.

My Dear Father and Mother:

As this is the afternoon just before Christmas Eve, I am taking it upon myself to drop you a few lines in commemoration of the great and blessed day which is to follow the day when we shall all celebrate the birth of our Almighty and Supreme Ruler, and I am sure we have every reason in the world, both home and abroad, to be exceedingly happy, grateful, and thankful for the great results recently made thru the guiding hand of Him above who directed our powerful armies to the successful conclusion of the world's war, and which will go down in history as the greatest victory ever known.

Well you should have seen us last night, all down at the Y. M. C. A. About twenty or thirty of us, helping the secretary fill Christmas boxes and decorate the "Y". All ready for the occasion, we fitted over fifteen hundred boxes, which will be distributed out to the boys of the American Expeditionary Force on Christmas Day.

We have a very nice little Y. M. C. A. here in Thesse, and the secretary who runs or rather manages it is from San Francisco, California, and is the pastor of the First Methodist church in that city. A very fine gentleman, indeed, they have church service in the "Y" every Sunday morning and evening, and Mr. Mourie is a very wonderful and forcible preacher, and I enjoy hearing him very much. They also have a piano in the "Y" and the other one of the secretaries brought over a nice bunch of sheet music, so you see I spend my evenings there in preference to the celebrated French wine rooms.

Every evening I go down to the post office, which is my usual custom each night. When I pulled the card out dropped several letters for me. Say, believe me, I sure was a happy kid. The first mail in seven weeks.

I am nicely situated now, living in my big stone house, overlooking the river Cher and the beautiful Cher Valley which is said to be the richest valley in France. All along this valley is where the early French noblemen, kings, etc., have erected most wonderful and beautiful chateaus or at home we would call them mansions, most of them are many years old and have a great history attached to them, it seems quiet realistic from the fact I walk upon and down the very same road, which Joan of Arc traveled when she led the French army to victory against the foe, in one of the early wars, many years ago.

By the way, I have not received my Christmas box from home, but will be given one from the "Y" Christmas day.

Some day I expect to be made happy when I receive my mail that is held up at some other point of destination.

The French girls are pretty but we are leaving them to the Frenchmen. The nurses are all very kind, but we are leaving them for the "docs" and we are true to the girls who knitted our socks, but there lingers in my mind, the picture of the girl I left behind.

Well, it is nearly time for supper. So will close, trusting all are well and happy. Do not worry about me for I was never better in my life and extending to each and every one my very best wishes for a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

I am as ever,

Your loving son,
Emmett Miller.

Sergt. F. T. Bolton Writes to Mother

Elsenschmitt, Germany.

Dear Mother: We have been traveling a great deal and I have not had an opportunity to write. We are now well in Germany. I am assuming, of course, that you have learned from the newspapers that we were part of the army of occupation (The Third American Army) and of course that means that there is very little if any chance to return home at an early date for we shall be from one to two weeks on the march yet before we reach our destination which is very probably Coblenz, on the Rhine. We have nearly a hundred kilometers to go from here and of course I do not know how long we shall remain there after peace is signed.

We were at Willy, France and at the front when the armistice was signed. Toilly is near the Meuse river. Part of our division was across the river and the remainder was trying to force a passage when hostilities ceased. From Toilly we went to Stenay; from Stenay to Dammeourt, Belgium; then to Arlon, Belgium; then to St. Leger, then to Nierich, Luxembourg; from there to Eckenroch, Luxembourg. We crossed into Germany at Rosport and our next stop was Priest, Germany, and the next Elsenschmitt. We have been here for two days and are enjoying a much needed rest and I expect we shall move again in a day or so. The last three days prior to our stop here we indeed trying ones for we were up at 4:45 a. m. and on the road at 7:00 a. m. and did 32 kilometers, 30 kilometers and 28 kilometers for the three days over a very beautiful country but the joy of the scenery was rather lost due to the hard work involved in continual marching and carrying a pack over not too good roads and a hilly terrain. It is a case of a survival of the fittest or a separation of the men from the boys.

The people in Belgium were indeed glad to see us and did everything possible to make us pleasant for us, but to my mind the grandest little country over here is Luxembourg. They also were very glad to have us and showed us in every way that they were friendly and not hostile. It is one of the most beautiful places I ever hope to see and the people are apparently well to do; have nice homes and keep them clean. It is indeed different than anything we have seen yet in Europe and I am beginning to think I have seen a lot.

That part of Germany that we are (in the Rhineland provinces) is also a very beautiful country and it is rather amusing the various sorts of treatment and welcomes we get from the German people. Some ignore our presence, some curious, some very meek and submissive in their actions, while others are openly friendly and try and often do treat us with kindness and do many things for us. At the town of Priest I and three other sergeants were billeted in the kitchen of a German farmer's home. They insisted that we eat supper with them and also that they get draw for us to sleep on. They were indeed friendly and tried to show us that they were and also tried to make a good impression on us. The man in that home was a German soldier as has most all of the heads of houses where we have been billeted.

At the town of Carl three of us were billeted in the kitchen of a farmer's house, that room being one of three in the house. There was the father, mother and 4 children, the oldest being four years and the youngest 12 days old. This was rather inconvenient for all concerned but it has got to be there is no place for us to go where there is shelter, heat and light so we just make ourselves at home anywhere we can which in most every case is just such a place as I have described above.

There is an army of 250,000 Germans alone marching thru Germany not considering the French and English each with the same number and there never was or never will be adequate provision made for such a number so we go in any place we can and it is hard on the natives but can't be helped. For my part home and America look better to me every day of my life and I want to get there as soon as ever I can. I have had enough of seeing the world on foot with a pack on my back.

The German farmers seem to have plenty to eat. Of course some things are not available or to be had at any price, while other things can be had but are scarce and very high. I paid 6 marks, $1.50, for six eggs yesterday. Coffee is not to be had, butter is very scarce also milk, veal and beef and sugar. There seems to be plenty of potatoes, sausage, black bread, carrots and turnips. On the whole there is a noticeable scarcity of food and also many raw materials.

I must stop now Mother and I shall write you again as soon as

HEPING FRANCE
GET CHICKENS.

The Daughters of Revolution are promoting a worthy object, that of restoring the humble hen to her own in sunny France. Formerly the society was known as the "I have a Chicken in France," but the close of war caused a change in name and now it is "Poultry Club for Devastated France." Miss Ella Trabue is acting for the local chapter and at Tomlinson's they have buttons for sale at ten cents each to aid in the work.

The young people of the David Prince school have been aiding in the matter and have been exercising their skill in preparing attractive posters for the purpose. One of them, the work of Miss Mable Todd, is especially noteworthy. It says "Get in Line; Give a Dime. Buy a Chicken for France." The lettering is very

Obtain More Dollars for Your Grain

Feeding whole grain is very expensive, a fact that has been proven by all the experimental stations. Ground feed is thoroly digested, therefore it takes less grain to make more fat, your stock remains in better health, gains more weight in less time, brings bigger and quicker results.

Use a United Feed Grinder

Facts Worth Knowing

SELF-SHARPENING BURRS—One of the most important parts of a feed mill are the grinding burrs. Years of experience in building feed mills have enabled us to produce in the new UNITED MILL, self-sharpening, oscillating burrs that have made this mill favored above all others.

SELF-SHARPENING—Because UNITED burrs have flat-faced teeth instead of the old type "V" shape, the surface of each tooth wears exactly to the same degree as the one next to it. There can be no unevenness in the wearing of these teeth, and furthermore, the more they wear, the sharper they become. The shearing or scissors effect produced by the flat-faced tooth makes it possible to grind even oats which you cannot do with ordinary burrs. The self-sharpening teeth do not make the grinding, rumbling noise found in other types of mills. UNITEDS are silent.

SELF-ALIGNING—One burr is securely mounted on the main shaft; the other equipped with a four-point suspension. It oscillates to the side, or forward and back. This oscillating burr must follow the burr on the shaft. This is real automatic alignment and equal pressure is maintained on all parts of the burrs.

UNITED burrs are made of spegalized steel—they last longer and grind many times more feed. By removing two bolts you gain quick access to the burrs.

Why have bad breath? Usually it is caused by sour stomach and constipation. Clean out the stomach and bowels and it disappears.

Yon druggist has a preparation called SALINOS, which will completely empty the stomach and bowels including the lower bowel where food waste lies and decays to cause not only bad breath but nearly all sickness. Take a bottle for a Quarter (larger sizes Fifty-cents and a Dollar).

Get it today! Take it first thing tomorrow morning.

Cash, $24.70

You will grind as much feed with less power, or much more feed with the same power. Grinds fine or coarse, fast or slow. The UNITED Mill was designed by experts—built by experts—it must render you a super-quality service.

UNITED USERS ARE PROUD OF THESE FEATURES IN THEIR FEED MILLS

- 1 Grind the finest table meal or coarsest feed for stock. Hair-breadth adjustment.
- 2 Grind more feed with less power or same amount with much less power than any other mill.
- 3 Grind with a Ball Bearing Mill—The United runs smoothly and without noise.
- 4 Four-point oscillating burrs with flat-faced self-sharpening teeth—Will Even Grind Your Oats. Burrs are of Spegalized steel, hard as glass.
- 5 Automatic worm feed drives grain to burrs—the result is maximum capacity.
- 6 Heavy rigid main frame mounted on our angle steel legs, securely braced.
- 7 Big hopper of 18-gauge steel. High carbon steel main shaft with a perfectly balanced Ball Bearing to absorb end thrust friction.
- 8 Quick release lever, hinged safety bottom, generous oil cups, high quality babbiting.

GRIND MORE WITH A UNITED

Facts Worth Knowing

THE UNITED SOLID FRAME is well supported by four heavy angle steel legs thoroughly braced. Only a minimum of friction because all castings are perfectly babbitted.

THE LARGE, SUBSTANTIAL HOPPER—Heavier steel is used in our UNITED Mill Hopper than in any other mill. It is of 18-gauge and the top edge is thoroughly reinforced by rolling the steel over a heavy one-fourth inch steel rod.

THE MAIN SHAFT is of high carbon steel. The UNITED is a BALL BEARING MILL, the very highest quality ball bearing, consisting of ground steel balls, running between two case-hardened, crucible steel blocks. These perfectly absorb the end thrust friction.

UNITED WORM FEED forces the grain to the oscillating burrs, increasing the grinding capacity. The cutter bar and knives on the concave bottom help to reduce cob corn to particles before it enters the burrs.

THE UNITED FLY WHEEL is perfectly balanced, causing the mill to run smoothly at all times.

UNITED SPECIAL SAFETY DEVICE—Wood break pins in the safety hinged bottom will give way if any obstructions should enter the burrs. UNITED Mills are fool-proof.

UNITED QUICK RELEASE FEED LEVER regulates the tension—burrs may be separated instantly. A convenient hand wheel regulates the fineness of the grain.

DAIRY EXTENSION CAMPAIGN.
ARTICLE NO. 4.
The Dairy Cow Necessary to Our National Welfare.

The farmer is engaged in the production of human food only. This is his sole business. He goes about his work year after year in a matter of fact way, little realizing that the health and wealth of the world is almost wholly dependent upon him. Of the sum total, little does he realize that 20 per cent of all the food eaten in this country year after year is from the dairy cow.

In addition to this the dairy cow is almost the sole support of all fertility on the average farm. It is said by Prof. Oscar E. Ode of Ohio State University, that agriculture would almost disappear from the United States within five years if the dairy industry were entirely annihilated. He says further: "Without the dairy cow we cannot exist as a nation. The United States is the only nation on earth the dairy industry of which has not been reduced to the point of annihilation."

Thus, not only because of the value of the products of the milk cow to the farmer who does the feeding and the milking is it apparent that in the ages to come the millions affected by the world war must look to this country for a considerable portion of their dairy products, and by meeting this requirement not only has the farmer benefited himself but also has he done for humanity a thing which no other class of people can do and which can be accomplished only thru the milk cow.

COMMENDS REED'S DUROC JERSEY HERD

J. Y. Beatty, Well Known Authority, Tells of Inspection Trip to Local Farm—Best He Has Seen.

J. Y. Beatty, a swine specialist of wide fame has just following to say about L. A. Reed's Durocs, after having seen them twice:

Chicago Ill. Jan. 1, 1919.

Mr. L. A. Reed, Jacksonville, Illinois. Dear Mr. Reed:

The bunch of bred sows you are offering in your sale Tuesday, Feb. 18, is by far the best lot of Durocs I have seen.

I was unusually pleased with the uniformity of the lot on my recent visit to your place. The fact that you have spent a number of years in breeding up this herd accounts for this valuable uniformity, I am sure.

I still have the picture in my mind of that beautiful sow you told me would be number 1 in the catalog. It surely must be a great sacrifice on your part to let this sow go to a new home. But, as you have built your herd by getting sows much above the ordinary run, so now you are helping other breeders build up their herds by offering this sow.

From my own experience in the hog business I can see that there is going to be a wonderful opportunity in your sale for everyone who attends it. There is an especially good opportunity for the man who is beginning with Durocs. He can buy anything in your sale at any reasonable price and make no mistake on it.

When you told me of the carloads of hogs you had shipped from your farm to market, I began to wonder if it isn't more of an honor to have sent several loads of good hogs to top the market than it is to win a few ribbons at the shows. The man who wins ribbons can do it with a few selected animals—the man who ships good hogs to market in carload lots is not likely to retain any animals on his farm to sell as breeders except those that he will be proud to sell.

I predict that your coming sale is going to be your most profitable sale both for the buyers and for you.

Cordially yours,
John Y. Beatty,
Managing Editor "System on the Farm."

RESIDENCE PROPERTY DAMAGED BY FIRE

Residence of Paul D. Moriarty, 133 Park Street, Badly Damaged—Department Gets Wrong Location—Loss on Building and Contents Estimated at $3,500.

Fire which started in the roof by sparks from a chimney caused a damage to the home of Paul Moriarty, Park street, Friday afternoon estimated by Chief Hunt to be $3,500 on building and contents.

The fire was discovered by one of the neighbors who notified Mrs. Moriarty and the department was called. Chief Hunt said that the first alarm gave the location of the fire on Cox street.

The department made the run to Cox street and finding no fire called in again and got the correct location. By that time, however, the flames had gained such headway that the house was badly damaged and most of the contents in the second story were destroyed.

Chief Hunt wishes to express the thanks of the department to a number of volunteer firemen who gave great assistance in fighting the fire. Herbert Capps was one of the volunteers and operated truck No. 2 in a first class manner.

Walter C. Bradish is the owner of the property. The loss is estimated by Chief Hunt as $2,000 on the house and $1,500 on the contents. Both are fully covered by insurance.
